PARTY GUEST—Bruce Tripp of the Wayland Community Residence admires an heirloom tree ornament during the recent Christmas party hosted by Mrs. Barbara Jerome. The Wayland woman has entertained at this event for the past five years and also hosts a summer picnic for the residents.

Wayland Woman Their True Friend

The holiday spirit arrived early for residents of the Wayland Community Residence on Third Ave.

On Dec. 2, Mrs. Barbara Jerome of Wayland hosted a party in her home to celebrate the birthday of Jesus. All 10 men and women look forward to this event each year.

Mrs. Jerome has been host to the party for the past five years. Her home was decorated for the season, Christmas music was played and the group joined in singing carols. Birthday cake and punch is served and each resident of the residence receives a gift from Mrs. Jerome.

Each year in July, the Wayland woman also plans a picnic for the group and their friends in her back yard. She prepares the food and plans some type of entertainment. They might all play kazoos or a friend will arrive to play the guitar for a sing-a-long and at times, skits are performed. As the sun sets and stars begin to glow, hanging lanterns and candles light the yard. And the group takes notice when the fountain in the swimming pool spurts into the air.

Mrs. Jerome explains she receives a great amount of pleasure just seeing the "joy and love that radiates from the men and women"—some in braces using walkers and others in wheel chairs. All involved say her "sharing and giving portrays a true meaning of Christmas."

Meeting Sunday At Wayland Church

The Wayland Seventh-day Adventist Church will have a business meeting at the church Sunday. Various phases of the church program will be reviewed and adjustments made as needed.

Family Fellowship will be held at the Yarger home in Carney Hollow next Wednesday at 7 p.m.

In the absence of Sally Sparks, Sabbath School superintendent, Lillian Lawrence, assistant, will be in charge Saturday. There will be "Commitment to Personal Excellence." Four members will help illustrate the need for excellence in every branch of living, dressed to represent a military man, a teacher, a missionary, and a housewife. Charlene Botticelli will present the Mission Story.

Wayland Students Show Art Works

Ten pieces of art and one portfolio done by Wayland Central School art students of Larry R. Thomas Jr. are being entered in the Twin Tiers Regional Scholastic Art Competition to be next month at the Arnot Art Museum in Elmira.

Thomas announced that a portfolio of eight pieces by Brian Essler, a senior, will be entered in the competition consisting of watercolors, sculptures and drawings.

Other entries are a ceramic vase by Randy Holmes, a watercolor by Tom Fairbrother, a mixed media painting by Heidi Henning and one by Rob Bondgren, a silk screen print by Heather Bondgren and five photographs by students Tammy Emmons, Amy Gardner, Donna Walker, Angela Ferrari and Heidi Henning.

The work will be judged by professional artists.

The show will open Feb. 6 and continue through Feb. 28. The exhibit will be open to the public during regular museum hours 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, noon to 5 p.m. Saturdays and 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays.

Check with us on our Mold of the Month. Greenware from this mold will be 20% OFF the regular greenware cost for this month at:
